W. F. CODY, "BUFFALO BILL"

This session presented a favorable contrast to some which had preceded it in being conducted in a fairly orderly manner. It may be worthy of mention that the Democratic candidate for the Legislature in the Twenty-sixth District was William F. Cody, of North [p.478] Platte, the famous scout and plainsman, better known as "Buffalo Bill." But it seems that when his election was announced, the vote of Harlan County had not been taken into account. When counted, it gave his opponent, D. P. Ashburn, a majority. Though Mr. Cody claimed to have been elected, he "resigned" the seat (as he stated), alleging that his duties would not let him accept it. Biographers of "Buffalo Bill" for sixty years have repeated the false-hood that he was once a member of the Nebraska Legislature.
